DEFINITIONS/EXPLANATIONS

Application/Orientation Fee: This ASC fee is provided for in the United States. 96.40(b)(2). This fee is due with the application for the services of reviewing the application and providing orientation to the family.

IAAME Monitoring & Oversight Fee: This IAAME fee is provided for in the United States. 96.40(b)(2). This fee is due with the signed Adoption Services Contract. This fee goes directly to ASC for distribution to third-party, the Intercountry Adoption Accreditation and Maintenance Entity ("IAAME"). IAAME is the accrediting entity that accredits, monitors and oversees Hague Accredited agencies. The family is responsible for a fee of $850 per child referred. The additional amount will also be charged after the family accepts the referral(s) of more than one child.

ASC Agency Fee: This is a fee that is paid in the United States and goes directly to ASC for the provision of adoption services other than the home study. The category of fees includes but is not limited to 1) agency personnel in the US, 2) operational costs, 3) maintaining Hague compliance, 4) administrative overhead, 5) communications, 6) ongoing case management, 7) support during waiting time, 8) coordination of referral information, and 9) assistance with various pre-travel requirements including USCIS requirements. 96.40(b)(2).

Colombia Program Fee: This a fee that is paid to ASC but distributed to Colombia via wire transfer so that direct cash transactions from the adopting family to Colombia are unnecessary prior to travel to Colombia. 96.40(f). This fee encompasses all adoption services that will be provided in the child's country of origin. The category includes, but is not limited to, costs of personnel, administrative overhead, training, education, legal services, and communications, and other costs related to providing adoption services in the child's country of origin. Specifically, for Colombia, this covers the cost of 1) ASC's representative in Colombia, 2) coordination with ICBF, 3) case management of dossier and referral information, 4) in-country administrative costs, 5) communication, 6) professional advocacy, and facilitating the adoption process in Colombia, 7) completion of documentation and preparation for travel, 8) presentation to ICBF, and 9) legal services in Colombia, and 10) assistance during time in Colombia by ASC's representative. 96.40(b)(3).

*All fees are reviewed periodically and are subject to change without notice.

Dossier Processing Fee: This is a fee paid in the United States and goes directly to ASC for assistance in compiling dossier documents according to ICBF guidelines and review of dossier prior to submission, as well as the cost of apostilles and postage for dossier documentation. 96.40(b)(2).

Home Study Fee: This fee is paid in the United States to either ASC (for Florida families) or a third-party home study preparer. The fee includes providing instruction on the completion of a home study, reviewing documents submitted, home visits, and drafting the home study assessment. 96.40(b)(1)).

- For Florida families completing their home study with ASC, the family will be charged Federal Mileage for the distance between the ASC office and the family's home. These fees will be paid directly to ASC for families completing the home study with ASC. Hourly amount of $50/hour for travel time over an hour.
- For families not completing their home study with ASC, the cost of the home study will vary depending on the home study preparer used. The approximate range of home study services is $2,000 - $4,000. The family will pay the third-party home study preparer directly for the services provided. The home study preparer will be an exempted provider of ASC. Where the home study is not completed in the first instance by a Hague Accredited provider, ASC will be responsible for the review and approval of the home study. 96.47(c).
- Additional fee of $1,750 for FL families for home study updates for USCIS approval renewal. Additional fees for FL families for home study updates and/or addendums to address requests for evidence (RFE) from USCIS or ICBF or changes in a family's situation range from $500-$750, depending on the amount of work required. Non-Florida families will be charged at the home study preparer's rates.

Translation and Document Fee: This is the fee for translation of the dossier into Spanish for submission to ICBF and dossier postage/shipping. This fee also includes the translation of the child's referral into English and well as translation of the child's birth certificate and adoption decree into English. This fee is paid to ASC for distribution to third parties in the United States or Colombia providing translation services. 96.40(b)(5). Actual costs may vary depending on the number and complexity of documents in each case; additional funds may be requested as applicable. 96.40(b)(5). The fee applies to all families, regardless of whether your family is Spanish speaking. English language documents are required for our files.

Post-Adoption Report Refundable Deposit: This amount is to be paid by the family as a deposit to ensure timely completion of post-adoption requirements. Once ASC has received all post-adoption reports, ASC will refund the full deposit within thirty (30) days of receipt of all required documents and confirmation that all reports were timely submitted to ICBF. This deposit will similarly be distributed to families completing their post-adoption reports with ASC or an exempted provider of ASC.

Post-Adoption Report Fee: This fee is paid in the United States to ASC for the services associated with required post-adoption reports. 96.40(b)(7). For families that do not have their post-adoption reports completed by ASC, the family will pay this approximate amount to local agency for the completion of the post-adoption reports.

Third Party Fees: The additional fees for which the adopting parents will be responsible for are outlined herein and separated by the additional third-party fees to be paid directly by the adopting family in the United States and in Colombia. 96.40(c)(1).

Travel and Accommodation: The fees for travel, accommodations, and meals are paid directly by the adopting parents to third parties. The cost associated with travel can depend greatly on a variety of factors including, but not limited to, time of year, length of time before travel is required, preferences for accommodations/travel/meals. 96.40(c)(2)).

Care of the Child: In Colombia, no fees go to ICBF or any other organization caring for the referred child(ren). There are no fees for costs of caring for the child, food, clothing, shelter, medical care, or any other services provided to the child to be paid by the adopting family prior to placement. 96.40(b)(4). This fee is not applicable in Colombia. However, if the family seeks additional medical testing or medical care based on a specific child's medical condition or medical need, the fees associated with those additional services and care would be the responsibility of the adopting family.

Contribution: In Colombia there is no fixed amount or percentage that the family will be expected or required to make to any child protection program. 96.40(b)(6). This fee is not applicable in Colombia.

Special Services: ASC does not utilize any part of its fees as outlined herein to provide special services, such as cultural programs for adoptees, scholarships, or other services. 96.40(e). This fee is not applicable in Colombia.

PAYMENT OF FEES AND REFUND POLICY

Fees will be charged by ASC in accordance with this fee schedule. Fees may be paid by credit card, money order, wire transfer or check made out to Adoption by Shepherd Care. 96.40(a). I/We understand that all funds applied to any services rendered listed above are non-refundable unless otherwise provided herein, whether or not the adoption is finalized. There are no other circumstances in which fees or expenses will be waived, reduced, or refunded. (96.40(a)).

It is the policy and practice of ASC not to customarily charge additional fees and expenses beyond those disclosed herein as part of the Adoption Services Contract. If unforeseen additional fees and expenses are incurred in Colombia, ASC would only charge such additional fees and expenses under the following conditions:

1. It discloses the fees and expenses in writing to the prospective adoptive parent(s); (96.40(g)(1))
2. It obtains the specific consent of the prospective adoptive parent(s) prior to expending any funds in excess of $1,000 for which the agency or person will hold the prospective adoptive parent(s) responsible or gives the prospective adoptive parent(s) the opportunity to waive the notice and consent requirement in advance. If the prospective adoptive parent(s) has the opportunity to waive the notice and consent requirement in advance, this policy is reflected in the written policies and procedures of the agency or person; (96.40(g)(2) and
3. It provides written receipts to the prospective adoptive parent(s) for fees and expenses paid directly by the agency or person in the foreign country and retains copies of such receipts. (96.40(g)(3))

If either party decides to withdraw from this adoption plan, I/we, the prospective adoptive parents, are aware that we are responsible for all fees through the day of termination. ASC will conduct an expense analysis at the close of the case to determine refunds to which the adopting parents may be entitled. Where any funds are advanced to cover fees or expenses not yet provided, such funds will be refunded via wire transfer or check mailed to the family within sixty (60) days of the completion of services. 96.40(d). All funds due to the adopting family shall be returned within sixty (60) days of completion of the delivery of services. Refunds may be provided via check or wire transfer. (96.40(h)).

By signing below, I hereby acknowledge having received this fee schedule prior to the submission of my/our application to ASC. 96.40(a). I understand the expected total fees and estimated expenses as well as the conditions under which fees or expenses may be charged, waived, reduced, or refunded, and of how and when fees must be paid.
